12 Booster Income

15
Days

Booster Income refers to an enhanced return on investment (ROI) offered when specific conditions are met.

If an investor makes the same investment amount as before and adds 3 Active Direct Referrals who also invest within 15 Days, their daily ROI income Increases By 0.20%.

This incentivizes quick action and growth through direct referrals, rewarding the investor with a higher daily return on their initial investment.

- Level Income is the commission or bonus a distributor earns from the sales generated by their downline members across various levels.
- Each level represents a tier in the distributor's network, usually defined by how many steps removed a downline member is from the distributor.

14 Asia Capital Salary Income

Daily
Income

- Salary Income (Daily Basis) refers to the compensation paid to employees based on the number of days worked. This type of income is calculated by multiplying the daily wage rate by the number of days an employee works in a given period, ensuring they are paid according to their actual attendance and work days.
